Feature Film

Rules and Awards

Festival Rules

1	Films with any production time can participate in the festival (the production time must be before the closing of the festival);
2	Films that respect the goals of the festival;
3	NORGS Festival selects and invites the films that are presented in the official selection;
4	After selecting the film, it cannot be removed from the festival program during the festival;
5	The films should be presented in the original language with Farsi or English subtitles. The original language means the language of the country where the film was made and screened. (Farsi or English films do not need subtitles);
6	There is no limit to the number of submitted works and any director can send any number of works to the festival secretariat;
7	Films selected as Official Selection agree to use the NORGS Festival Official Selection logo in all their advertising. In addition, award winners and film distribution companies agree to use the exact text of the awards as described in the festival guidelines and the winners' logo. Also, the festival can use the film, trailer, poster and other accessories in different parts of the festival, including the closing ceremony, advertisements, etc.;
8	In the feature film section, filmmakers from all over the world can participate;
9	Participants must upload all required documents and images to the FilmFreeway, Festhome or WFCN website, including movie trailers, movie posters, director photos, screenwriter photos, editor photos, main actress/actor photos and music composer photos;
10	Each participant must provide a real and accessible email. Otherwise, it will stay away from the festival information and the festival will not accept any responsibility in this regard;
11	The feature film section includes 2 sections: fiction and documentary;
12	The official selection of feature film is 20, which includes 10 fiction films and 10 documentaries;
13	Participating in the NORGS Festival means accepting all the rules and regulations of the festival and respecting the pre-selection conditions. Failure to comply with any of the mentioned items will cause the removal of the film in the first stage;
14	Participants must enable the download feature or respond positively to the download request. Otherwise, their film will not be judged;
15	If your film is selected: You will be contacted by email.
